

Catholic Earthcare
AUSTRALIA

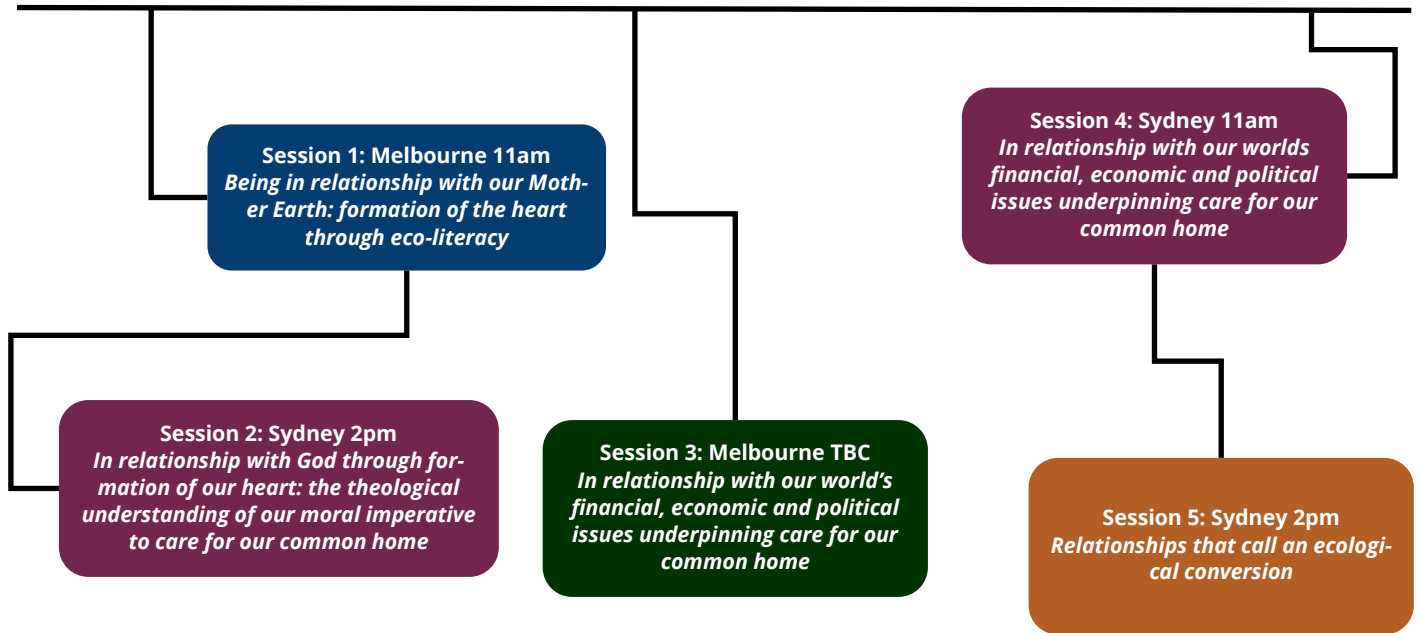

AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC
SUPERANNUATION RETIREMENT FUND

September 3, 2020

TBC September 2020

TBC September 2020

Session 1: Melbourne 11am
Being in relationship with our Mother Earth: formation of the heart through eco-literacy

Session 2: Sydney 2pm
In relationship with God through formation of our heart: the theological understanding of our moral imperative to care for our common home

Session 3: Melbourne TBC
In relationship with our world's financial, economic and political issues underpinning care for our common home

Session 4: Sydney 11am
In relationship with our worlds financial, economic and political issues underpinning care for our common home

Session 5: Sydney 2pm
Relationships that call an ecological conversion

Convocation Program Session 1
11:00am September 3, 2020
Broadcast from Melbourne Catholic Leadership Centre
Hosted by Clare Vernon, Catholic Earthcare Australia

Being in Relationship with our Mother Earth: Formation of the Heart through Eco-literacy
Session chaired by: Sr Margie Abbott RSM
Theme	Presenters	Background
	Shelly Balcombe	Aboriginal Catholic Mission Victoria
	Dr Peter Saunders	Campion Centre of Ignatian Spirituality
	Two Youth Presenters	To be determined through Youth Competition
		Topic
		A personal reflection on a spiritual relationship with country
		Being with God in nature
		My ecological conversion

Convocation Program Session 2

2:00pm September 3, 2020

Broadcast from the Parramatta Catholic Education Office
Hosted by Bernard Holland, Catholic Earthcare Australia

The Relationship with God through Formation of the Heart: The theological understanding of our moral imperative to Care for our Common Home

Theme

Session chaired by: Sally Neaves, Rahamin Ecology

Presenters	Background	Topic
Dr Sandie Cornish	Office for Social Justice, Sydney	Who are we before God and in creation? Integral ecology in the spirituality of Catholic Social Teaching
Dr Trish Hindmarsh	Educational Administrator and Consultant	Touching hearts, changing minds: The place of conversion within eco-spirituality
One Sydney Youth Presenter	To be determined through Youth Competition	What is God asking us to do?
Bishop Vincent Long	Bishop of Parramatta	Francis and Francis lighting the path: Franciscan eco-spirituality in light of Pope Francis

Convocation Program Session 3

Time and Date TBC September 2020

Broadcast from Melbourne (location TBC)
Hosted by Clare Vernon, Catholic Earthcare Australia

The Relationship with our world's financial, economic and political issues underpinning care for our common home

Theme

Session chaired by: Tim Buckley, IEEFA

Presenters	Background	Topic
Bronwyn Lay	Coordinator of the Climate Change Exchange, RMIT University and Ecological Justice Office at Jesuit Social Services	A green world that cares for our common home and its people
Professor Ross Garnaut	University of Melbourne	An economy that cares for our common home

Convocation Program Session 4 11:00am Date TBC September 2020

Broadcast from Sydney (location TBC)
Hosted by Bernard Hollan, Catholic Earthcare Australia

The Relationship with our worlds financial, economic and political issues underpinning care for our common home

Theme

Session chaired by: Bernard Holland, Director, Catholic Earthcare Australia

Presenters	Background	Topic
John Ferguson	Office for Social Justice	Inequality in a rich country
Tim Buckley	IEEFA	From financial analyst to political activist
Zali Steggall	Independent member for Warringah	On being an agent for change

Convocation Program Session 3 Time and Date TBC September 2020

Broadcast from Melbourne (location TBC)
Hosted by Bernard Holland, Catholic Earthcare Australia

Relationships that call an ecological vocation

Theme

Session chaired by: National Youth Competition winner

Presenters	Background	Topic
Youth Presenter	To be determined through Youth Competition	Change me, change my family: how one young person inspired their family's community's journey to living more sustainability (their ecological conversion)
Youth Presenter	To be determined through Youth Competition	Change me, change my community: how one young person inspired a community's journey to living more sustainably (their ecological conversion)
Kirsty Robertson	CEO, Caritas Australia	Mindfulness in a climate-challenged world
David Hutton	Educational consultant and Chair, ACSRF	Catholic leadership for an ecological conversion