

Catholic
Earthcare
AUSTRALIA

AUSTRALIAN
CATHOLIC
SUPERANNUATION
RETIREMENT FUND

CONVOCAATION PROGRAM

September 3
2020

September TBC
2020

September TBC
2020

Session 1: Melbourne 11am

Being in relationship with our Mother Earth: formation of our hearts through eco-literacy

Session 2: Sydney 2pm

In relationship with God through formation of our heart: the theological and moral imperative to care for our common home

Session 3: Melbourne TBC

In relationship with our world's financial, economic and political issues that underpin care for our common home

Session 4: Sydney 11am

In relationship with our world's financial, economic and political issues that underpin care for our common home

Session 5: Sydney 2pm

Relationships that call for an ecological conversion

Session 1

11:00am
September 3 2020

Broadcast from: Melbourne Catholic Leadership Centre
Hosted by: Clare Vernon, Catholic Earthcare Australia
Chaired by: Sr Margie Abbott RSM

Being in relationship with our Mother Earth: formation of our hearts through eco-literacy

Presenters	Background	Topic
Shelly Balcombe	Aboriginal Catholic Mission Victoria	A personal reflection on a spiritual relationship with country
Dr Peter Saunders	Campion Centre of Ignatian Spirituality	Being with God in nature
Two Youth Presenters	To be determined through Youth Competition	What is God asking us to do?

Session 2

2:00pm
September 3 2020

Broadcast from: Parramatta Catholic Education Office
Hosted by: Bernard Holland, Catholic Earthcare Australia
Chaired by: Sally Neaves, Rahamin Ecology

In relationship with God through formation of our heart: the theological and moral imperative to care for our common home

Presenters	Background	Topic
Dr Sandie Cornish	Office for Social Justice, Sydney	Who are we before God and in creation? Integral ecology in the spirituality of Catholic Social Teaching
Dr Trish Hindmarsh	Educational Administrator and Consultant	Touching hearts, changing minds: The place of conversion within eco-spirituality
One Sydney Youth Presenter	To be determined through Youth Competition	What is God asking us to do?
Bishop Vincent Long	Bishop of Parramatta	Francis and Francis lighting the path: Franciscan eco-spirituality in light of Pope Francis

Session 3

Time TBC
September TBC 2020

Broadcast from: Melbourne (location TBC)
Hosted by: Clare Vernon, Catholic Earthcare Australia
Chaired by: Tim Buckley, IEEFA

In relationship with our world's financial, economic & political issues that underpin care for our common home

Presenters	Background	Topic
Bronwyn Lay	Coordinator of the Climate Change Exchange, RMIT University and Ecological Justice Office at Jesuit Social Services	A green world that cares for our common home and it's people
Professor Ross Garnaut	University of Melbourne	An economy that cares for our common home

Session 4

11:00am
September TBC 2020

Broadcast from: Sydney (location TBC)
Hosted by: Bernard Holland, Catholic Earthcare Australia
Chaired by: Bernard Holland, Catholic Earthcare Australia

In relationship with our world's financial, economic & political issues that underpin care for our common home

Presenters	Background	Topic
John Ferguson	Office for Social Justice	Inequality in a rich country
Tim Buckley	IEEFA	From financial analyst to political activist
Zali Steggall	Independent member of Warringah	On being an agent for change

Session 5

Time TBC
September TBC 2020

Broadcast from: Melbourne (location TBC)
Hosted by: Bernard Holland, Catholic Earthcare Australia
Chaired by: National Youth Competition winner

Relationships that call for an ecological vocation

Presenters	Background	Topic
Youth Presenter	To be determined through Youth Competition	Change me, change my family: how one person inspired their family's community journey to living more sustainable lives (their ecological conversion)
Youth Presenter	To be determined through Youth Competition	Change me, change my community: how one person inspired their family's community journey to living more sustainable lives (their ecological conversion)
Kirsty Robertson	CEO, Caritas Australia	Mindfulness in a climate-challenged world
David Hutton	Educational consultant and Chair, ACSRF	Catholic leadership for an ecological conversion